The city council and mayor by their action Tuesday night paved the way for improvement in the city. So long as the street railway track is permitted to remain in the streets in its present condition, putting the streets over which it dominates in anything like good shape for other travel is regarded an impossibility and funds for improvement cannot be had. Practically the entire community regards the track a serious obstruction and the service to the public miserably poor. It would appear at first that the determination on the part of the business and other interests of the city to expect that the owners will remove the track at an early date and permit better facilities for transportation of freight and passengers and mail and express to operate profitably, is passing a hardship to the shoulders of the owners and purposing a financial loss to them, but bare reflection will convince to the contrary. It is pretty well settled that the owners of the road have no intention of making adequate repairs in view of the big expense for such and the inevitable competition and that the rails and ties will sell to better advantage at this time than if left off the market until depreciation as well as the price of such material lessons value. The improvement of the street from the court house to the Wabash station is imperative and will be underway at the earliest practicable moment. The state highway will not run through the town over the streets occupied by the street railway as it now exists, neither east and west nor north and south nor can a dollar be raised for grading and oiling under existing conditions. Aside from the damage to private property and the streets, the street car line has outlived its usefulness and is totally inadequate to public demands for service and its existence undoubtedly of but short duration.

Strong Women

BY DR. VALENTINE MOTT.

Women and men too—are just as strong and healthy as their blood. Vigor and health come with good blood. Without good red blood a woman has a weak heart and poor nerves.

In the spring is the best time to take stock of one's condition. If the blood is thin and watery, face pale or pimply, if one is tired and listless, generally weak, a Spring Tonic should be taken. An old-fashioned herbal remedy that was used by nearly everybody 50 years ago is still safe and sane because it contains no alcohol or narcotic. It is made of roots and herbs and called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If druggists do not keep it in tablet form, send 60 cents for a vial to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.

Drag the roads.

The regular petit jury was promptly discharged by Judge Lamb Monday. Not a jury case in sight on the docket. Another reason for but two terms of court a year.

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR

Tractor and Implement You Handle Them Both

6

Features You Want

1. Does all field work—including cultivating—and belt work. Saves most horse keep.
2. One man handles both tractor and implement. You can farm more land alone.
3. Tractor and implement back up as one unit. Easily handled in close places.
4. Operator sits on implement seat. Perfect control over whole outfit.
5. Operator's eye always on implement. Better implement work; better crops.
6. Tractive power ahead of work; operator behind it. Handles like horses.

Every year the farm help problem grows worse. We say there is no better solution to this problem than the Moline-Universal Tractor and thousands of farmers agree with us. They have tried it and know.

You see it can do all the field work, even the cultivating. And it can easily do as much work right along as two men with horse outfits. So with only one man handling both the Moline-Universal and its implement—in every operation—it doubles the amount of work you can do yourself.

Beside saving you worry and increasing your independence its one-man, all-work features cut your labor expense to the bone. It is the most economical tractor made.

Consider harvesting. You and the Moline-Universal handle the binder alone. With a 10-foot binder you can cut 40 acres a day—all alone. That's better than having a man on the binder and another on the tractor. When a one-man outfit can do the business just as well there is no advantage in adding a man to the harvesting force in the face of the labor problem—just at the season when help is most scarce and expensive.

This one-man feature follows the Moline-Universal all through the season, saving money and creating satisfaction and independence. It helps make the Moline-Universal a sound investment. All we ask is a chance to demonstrate and figure with you.
